

Media buying today has become a part of the media planning process. Our sellers are well trained on the facets of media planning to ensure optimal delivery with great benefit to our customers. The sales team at PPB has a combined experience of more than 10 years.

They use a combination of flexible media planning, which brings the best results, which is a combination of price, quality, and value. The main feature of our sales team is precision and the ability to plan the use of targeted media to meet the needs of the brand.