

Thunya joined PPB in 2017, She is relocated from Panyathip Advertising and now she is responding to all HR work for the group. In short, her duties are fall under the following five core functions: staffing, development, compensation, safety and health, and employee and labor relations.

She is a great person in finding solutions and new ways to support and develop the staff under her arms.